Vegetable Production Twilight Meeting

When & Where:

Thursday, September 26, 2013
6:00-7:30 p.m.
$5 registration fee
(see reverse for registration information)
John C. Pair Horticulture Research Center
1901 E. 95th St. S, Haysville, KS
(Light snacks will be provided)

Topics:

- Cover crops & pumpkin production
- Tomato Grafting & Production
  - Advantages & Disadvantages
  - Use of Surround
  - Plastic mulch & staking
- Organic Sweet Potato Production
  - Slip production
  - Growing
  - Harvesting

Who Should Attend:

- Anyone growing or considering growing tomatoes, pumpkins, or sweet potatoes for sale.
- Those interested in organic farming.
- Anyone interested in learning more about cover crops and their benefits.
- Anyone interested in networking with other growers.

---

Bring your questions, your plant problem samples, and your business cards for networking!
Vegetable Production

Twilight Meeting

Thursday, September 26, 2013               6-7:30 p.m.
John C. Pair Horticulture Research Center
1901 E. 95th St. S, Haysville, KS
Register Online at: http://vegtwilightmeeting.eventbrite.com

Meeting Registration

Name: ________________________  Additional Participants: ____________________

Business or Farm Name: ____________________________________________

Address: ______________________City, State, Zip Code: ___________________

Which category best describes you?

☐ Market fruit or vegetable grower

☐ Interested in growing produce for market

☐ Other ____________________________

Registration Fees (per participant)

Meeting Fee $5.00 X ________ = __________

TOTAL = __________

Make Checks Payable to: Extension Education Foundation

Mail Form & Payment to:
Sedgwick County Extension
c/o Rebecca McMahon
7001 W. 21st St. N
Wichita, KS 67205

Questions? Call 316-660-0142