

2017 Conference Scholarship Form

A limited number of scholarships are available for students and beginning farmers and others for the 2017 KRC Farm and Food Conference, November 17-18, 2017. The scholarships cover the conference registration fee.

Students (High School or College) are the first priority; Beginning Farmers or Limited Resource Farmers are the second priority; if there are slots open after these priorities have been filled, we will consider other applicants. Scholarships are made possible by conference sponsors and KRC partners.

Please answer the questions below and return to KRC at info@kansasruralcenter.org. We will respond within 3 to 5 days to your application.
